INTRODUCTORY NOTICES.

King's College, at York (now Toronto), was established by his late Majesty George IV., by charter bearing date March 15, 1827, with the style and privileges of a University. It was endowed by the same Sovereign with 225,944 acres of land, by patent, bearing date Jan. 3rd, 1828.

In the year 1837, the two Houses of the Legislature of Upper Canada amended the charter by a Bill, to which the Lieut.-Governor gave the royal assent March 4, of that year.

In the year 1842, on April 23, the foundation stone of the building in the University Park was laid by his Excellency the Right Hon. Sir Charles Bagot, G. C. B., M. A. Christ Church, Oxford, Governor General of British North America, &c.

In the year 1843, temporary accommodation having been provided in the Parliament Buildings, the first Matriculation of Students took place; and the Inaugural Addresses and Lectures were delivered on June 8 and 9.

In the year 1849, the two Houses of the Legislature of Canada, by a Bill, to which the Deputy-Governor gave the royal assent May 30 of that year, repealed the Act of 1837, and "so much of the said charter, so granted by his late Majesty King George IV. as aforesaid, as is contradictory with this act or any of the provisions thereof, or as makes any provision in any matter provided for by this act other than such as is hereby made in such matter."

On October 25, 1849, his Excellency, the Right Hon. the Earl of Elgin and Kincardine, K.T., M.A., Merton College, Oxford, Governor General of British North America, &c., presided as Chancellor at the last Commencement of King's College.

On January 1, 1850, the new Act came into operation, and the institution is hereafter to be conducted, according to its provisions, under the designation of "THE UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO."
